

Memorial Day Weekend is coming, and JJ Swing has a full weekend lined up to make sure we get summer started right!

It's not the last Friday of the month, but it's the Last Alternative Brews event EVER for this season. Help us close out the 2014-15 Alternative Brews season in style starting at 6:00 on May 22! Don't worry, we'll be back....

Warm weather means we get to head out to the water – this time Lake Ontario for the Wilson Boat House! We open our season there this Saturday, May 23 with an 8-12 show. Come on up to Wilson!!

Finally, on Sunday, May 24 we'll be at Water Street Landing for a 4-8 show. After watching the ice go down the river all winter, it's gonna be AWESOME being there in nice weather again!
